- Promote independence and employ strategies to recognise and reward achievement of self-reliance.
- Provide feedback to pupils in relation to progress and achievement.
- Contribute to person-centred reviews and Individual Development Plans (IDPs) as necessary.

Support for schools:

- In collaboration with teaching staff, plan challenging teaching and learning objectives to evaluate and adjust lessons/work plans as appropriate.
- Collaborate with teaching staff and the wider support team to implement tailored behaviour and learning strategies and ensure that pupils access high quality learning when they attend the outreach provision.
- Establish a person-centered approach and constructive relationship with the pupils, wider support team, headteacher, teaching assistants and parents.
- Monitor provision in the schools after they have received outreach support.
- Model appropriate strategies to upskill and increase the confidence of school staff.
- Inspire school staff to feel confident to support challenging behaviour independently.
- Provide objective and accurate feedback and reports as required on pupils' achievement, progress and behaviour, ensuring the availability of appropriate evidence.
- Record progress and achievement in lessons/activities systematically and providing evidence of range and level of progress and attainment.
- Work within an established discipline policy to anticipate and manage behaviour constructively, promoting self-control and independence.
- Take the initiative as appropriate to develop appropriate multi-agency approaches to supporting pupils.
- Recognise own strengths and areas of specialist expertise and use these to lead, advise and support others.

Support for the Curriculum:

- Deliver learning activities to pupils within agreed system of supervision, adjusting activities according to pupil responses/needs.
- Deliver local and national learning strategies and make effective use of opportunities provided by other learning activities to support the development of pupils' skills.
- Use ICT effectively to support learning activities and develop pupils' competence and independence in its use.
- Select and prepare resources necessary to lead learning activities, taking account of pupils' interests and language and cultural backgrounds.
- Advise on appropriate deployment and use of specialist aid/resources/equipment.
